Introduction to Senior Report:

On the following page begins the interpretation of your birth chart. This interpretation focuses on issues and concerns that people have in their later years. We tend to respond to astrological influences a bit different as we get older. With time we gain wisdom, moderation, and constancy that helps us handle astrological influences differently from the way we did as teenagers and young adults. This report takes this into account. Also, although many of our basic concerns are the same throughout our entire lives, there are also concerns and situations that we are more likely to encounter in different stages in life. This report focuses on the issues that are most likely to interest you. Hopefully, this astrological analysis will encourage you to pursue the activities and interests that will help you follow a path that will be the most fulfilling and meaningful one for you.

For the benefit of students of astrology, the positions of the planets at the time of birth and other technical information is given below:

Ascendant in Sagittarius:

Jupiter's rulership of Sagittarius is also conducive to promoting a youthful, vivacious, enthusiastic outlook on life. Sagittarius, no matter his/her age, tends to be fun loving and playful, and always ready to learn or experience something new. You are open-minded, tolerant and ever ready to start a new adventure. Many Sagittarians are good at sports. Others enjoy recreational activities and will feel completely at ease in the great outdoors. This ascendent is drawn in its highest expression, to promote truth, justice and fair dealings. Sagittarian's make excellent government workers, lawyers, law enforcement officers, security guards, politicians, teachers, professors, philosophers and other types of workers that involve defense or promotion of the people, especially those less fortunate. Higher education is ruled by this sign, consequently, most Jupiter ruled people are likely to value education and understand fully, the benefits of becoming educated and knowledgeable. This sign loves to experience the world at large, not fearing to travel overseas and visit foreign cultures. You are likely to do some extensive traveling at some point in your life, but more likely when you are very young or after mid-life.

It is true, too, that you will possibly marry very early or from mid to later years. You have so many things on your life agenda that you sometimes wait for a potential mate who is of like nature and may even limit the number of children you have. You are careful with whom you share your most personal feelings, especially where your spiritual beliefs are concerned. You are what you have learned but always hold back enough to maintain your sense of self. Astrology, numerology, The Sacred Tarot and the occult, in general could provide you with some interesting study material. You have tremendous insight and some may even call you psychic. You have an understanding about the human condition that leads you to know that there is more beyond the veil of death...that there is another whole dimension to living that hasn't even been explored yet. Your leisure years could find you traveling, taking part in community projects, involving yourself with church or youth groups or continuing with your career or life work in some capacity.

Sun in Aquarius and in 2nd house:

Your Sun sign will always be about the upliftment of humanity, to one degree or another. There will be something in life, perhaps different at any given stage that you will want to change and make better about your life or humankind. You have a highly creative mind and are in tune with dimensions not yet discovered by most of the greater masses. Your vitality increases the more you become in tune with the greater consciousness. The Sun in the second house is a fortunate position for personal earnings, personal finances and investments, the accumulation of material goods and the acquisition of real estate. You will have unique and unusual ideas about finances and about how to increase your earnings. You may be one, for example, who by mid to later life will be a highly successful entrepreneur. It will be difficult for even the experts to advise you about money because your mind works at such a higher vibration that your concepts may still be new to the real world. Sometimes, this placement brings unexpected windfalls in the mid to later years. Your biggest lesson will be disciplining yourself enough to turn any windfalls into security for you and your family. Your message to the Universe will be that ideas for prosperity are endless and resources are infinite.

Sun Conjunct Venus:

You are a dynamic individual and wholly attractive to the opposite sex. Although assertive, you are gracious, diplomatic and tactful. You require the society of others. Romance is also a driving need.

Sun Square Saturn:

The worst kind of deceit is self-deception. In your younger years, it is possible you would have spent a lot of time daydreaming. In later years, you will learn to put effort, diligence and hard work behind everything you undertake.

Moon in Sagittarius and in 11th house:

The Moon is the reflection of the soul, in a manner of speaking. The Moon is the seat of the emotions and is one of the main reasons the earth school was created...so that humankind could learn all of the lessons the emotions have to teach. The Moon is a barometer, of sorts, and measures what we have assimilated in spiritualized lunar energies. It also measures what our "target" areas are...that is, what areas in life we need to process through via our feelings and emotional expression. Any negative behaviors that are based in the emotions, that we brought with us into this lifetime will be given ample time and due course, to be processed and elevated into a higher expression.

With this eleventh house lunar placement, your emotional focus in life will be on humanitarian efforts, the human condition and what you can do to help or serve others. You are likely to have a spiritual awareness that goes far beyond the awareness of the norm. You are likely to be able to see and understand the whole picture, no matter what your religious views or belief system of choice may be. You have a loving, giving heart, and your ability to love will increase with age and experience. Your sense of tolerance allows you to see solutions and to envision future progress more quickly than most. In this way, your talents and gifts will be of great worth to organizations. Clubs and other membership groups, which may be, in some way, devoted to finding solutions for, people in need. You are naturally drawn to those in high places of authority, particularly, those who can make things happen fast. Because you have the ability to envision your dreams, you will have great success in manifesting your dreams.

Mercury in Aquarius and in 2nd house:

From Mercury, you learn how to communicate with the world around you. You discover your mental aptitude and find ways to utilize your abilities in logic and reasoning. Mercury teaches you about life through some travel, personal studies and the use of perception. With Mercury in the second house, part of your spiritual destiny in this New Age is connected to the global economy and is best fulfilled in using the highest principles and ethics when you are dealing with money and all matters pertaining to finance and investments. You care about your family's security and comfort, but you also care about certain environmental and humanitarian causes. These causes will likely get more of your attention in your retirement years and later.

Mercury Opposition Pluto:

In youth, were you ever accused of being a fanatic? You are strongly opinionated and are unafraid of making your views known to all who will listen. You are a force to be reckoned with, however, you are not always willing to be fair or to let the underdog have his turn on the soap box. With the coming of age, you will begin to be less threatened by a differing view and may even enjoy the stimulation of a good debate or competition. That which is secretive, intriguing or a mystery will invite your inquiry. You would actually make a good detective or mystery writer. Be careful and discerning when entering into any contracts or agreements throughout life.

Mercury Square Mars:

You would not do well to become too mental or too physical in your daily activities. Seek a balance, or else these energies could cause you to lose interest, vitality and motivation. You need a harmonious home life and work environment.

Mercury Trine Jupiter:

You are very much a mental person. You live in the realm of thoughts and ideas. Communication, writing, advertising, publishing and business matters are favorable. If you are diligent in your youth about investing and taking care of family security matters, your retirement years will be spent pleurably. Many opportunities for travel, both long and short distance, are indicated.

Mercury Trine MC:

Your organizational skills and bright mind give you the ability to accomplish anything you desire. You will require an active career, and one that brings constant changes and stimulation. Otherwise, you would bore too easily. With maturity, you will spark new interest in family elders and may decide to write down some of their stories and anecdotes. Family security and camaraderie also take on importance.

Mercury Quincunx Uranus:

You have a highly developed intellect, but need to add to your storehouse of knowledge, feelings of empathy, compassion and enthusiasm. Knowledge is fine, but without practical application, the experience of joy and goals to look forward to, wisdom becomes temporal.

Venus in Aquarius and in 2nd house:

The sign and placement of Venus will give you insight into your feelings and emotional leaning. Venus helps you to discover your attitudes about music, art, culture, theatre and all forms of creativity and beauty. Venus links you to love, romance and altruism. Venus in the second house likes to spend money and enjoy creature comforts. However, when the need arises to be frugal, this planet and sign combination is well able to become "detached" from money and possessions, enough to deal with the matter or situation at hand. You are generous in your giving and grateful in your receiving. You take little for granted but tend to always expect the best. These characteristics are likely to follow you throughout life.

Venus Square Saturn:

You may find that you "preempt" your family and romantic life, in favor of your career or social responsibilities. In youth, this could cause you problems at home and in marriage. As you mature, you will develop better skills at prioritizing your commitments. Don't forget to nurture yourself.

Mars in Scorpio and in 11th house:

Scorpio brings depth, intensity, drive and huge powers of concentration to Mars. Anywhere there is focus, there is a tremendous ability to see things through, to transform and to make changes, when power is used for good. Throughout life you will have made some powerful connections with influential people. In later life, you may find yourself involved in politics, community affairs or clubs and organizations. Friends become more important after mid-life.

Mars Square Pluto:

You are definitely one who acts on impulse, and who needs to exercise more caution. You will want to steer clear of violence, aggression and subversive behaviors. In youth, you are less discriminating and this can, at times, cause unnecessary problems. In age, you become more discriminating and much less drawn to conflict or confrontation.

Mars Trine Uranus:

You have a strong, active desire for personal freedom. You tend to express yourself openly and boldly. Others may not be sure how to take you, on first impression. You are likely to separate from your family, desiring complete independence, early in life. As you grow older, however, you will re-connect with family ties and family history.

Mars Trine South Node:

Sometimes you spin your wheels, making little or no progress with a given task or goal. You need to learn the value of a good game plan. You will, with maturity, become more adept at working out strategies, schedules and datelines. Success comes when you follow-through and see your endeavors to successful completion.

Mars Sextile Node T.:

You have the ability to go after what you want. Remember too, however, that traditional means and methods are not always the best. Keep an open mind to new areas of research, science and pioneering.

Jupiter in Gemini and in 6th house:

Jupiter's sign and house placements give you hope and optimism in life. Jupiter shows you the potential for your greatest rewards and benefits, and gives you a chance to speak your own truth to the world.

This is an excellent placement for one interested in medicine. Nursing, medical professions, alternative medicine practices and other forms of healing could appeal to you, either as a profession or in terms of your interest as a prospective patient. You have the ability to remain aloof and detached from difficult or painful situations, making you better able to assess a situation and take positive actions. This will be true as a parent, employee, employer or practitioner. You may have demonstrated in your younger days, as well, an affinity for natural healing and/or other healing abilities. Some of your greatest successes in life will come through your employment and job situations. You are a person with many interests and could display talent in any number of areas. You may also begin a whole new career sometime during the second half of life. Your skills include communication, writing, speech and nearly all mental pursuits you take on. You are a natural teacher and could easily do some volunteer work in this area, in your later years. Your interest in later life will continue to keep you open-minded and youthful, both in appearance and in attitude.

Jupiter Trine MC:

With this aspect, there is much luck and good fortune promised you in your career or profession. The more dominant parent or guardian in your life, will establish some important values, standards and considerations for you to use as guidelines throughout life. Family, culture, religion and social commitments are important to you, especially in later years.

Saturn in Scorpio and in 10th house:

Your greatest lessons in life will involve Saturn's sign and house placements. Saturn as teacher allows Scorpio to experiment with the right use of power, authority and the authenticity of a leadership role. While the early years may find you struggling to find balance with this, your middle to later years finds you in a comfortable niche. Your ability to parent yourself, on a deeper more spiritual level, will also begin to unfold then. You will find over the years that you have a genuine interest in making the world a better place.

Uranus in Cancer and in 7th house:

Uranus is the planet of the higher mind, the super consciousness, and represents the attunement we can make with the divinity that exists within us all. Uranus, it has been said, never takes anything away from us without giving back something far better. False beliefs fall. Truth replaces the falsehood.

Uranus in the seventh house will attract you to a spouse or life partner who is either a genius, highly intellectual or in some way, out-of-the-ordinary.

Likewise, as a couple or in a partnership, you will be considered dynamic, inspirational and a force to be dealt with. In general, you have courage where your business dealings are concerned and will take risks where others might run in the other direction. Because of your intuitive abilities, however, success will be yours, more than not.

Uranus Conjunct South Node:

As a youth, you may have had a reputation or have been considered to be rebellious against society or tradition. As you mature, however, you will tend to sift through the dross and find life's little pearls.

Uranus Opposition Node T.:

This is a powerful aspect and will require much maturity, courage and determination to see it through to its fulfillment. You sense, early on, a special purpose for your life. In your youth, however, it will be easy to become distracted or sidetracked. You may follow shadows for awhile, thinking your destiny runs in one of these directions. When you begin to educate yourself and gain personal knowledge, your purpose will become more and more clear. For you, creative visualization and meditation will help discipline the mind and teach you to give attention to your intuitive nature. With maturity comes honed tools of the mind, body and soul that will allow you to create and live out your destiny.

Uranus Square MC:

You are someone who, in early life, probably changed jobs lots and got easily bored with whatever you were doing at any given moment. You need lots of freedom to express yourself and would do best, in mid to later life, to become self-employed and your own boss. You often disdain superiors.

Neptune in Libra and in 10th house:

Neptune governs your basic beliefs on a spiritual level. Your inner world, subconscious expressions, psychic intuition and creative visualizations all come under rulership of Neptune. Your role in the upliftment of the planet is divulged in the lessons Neptune instills. Neptune keeps your secrets and reveals your fears. Neptune helps you uncover your hidden beliefs; especially those that hold you back spiritually, and keep you from living a fulfilling and joy-filled life. Your career choice will help you to uncover the true spirit-ordained power that exists from within. You will learn how to balance power and how to execute it wisely and with compassion. With experience and maturity, you will learn to work with others in a cooperative, constructive fashion. This will make you a good one to mediate or negotiate, perhaps with the public or on behalf of those unable to speak up for themselves. Any illusions you may have had regarding personal achievements and accomplishments as the end-all, be-all in life will find balance in your realization of the importance of family, home and personal relationships in your life.

Neptune Square Node I:

Although you may feel pressured, throughout life, to keep up with new social and cultural trends, you need to become comfortable with who you are. Others will accept you once you are able to exude self-confidence and calm.

Neptune Square South Node:

Others may see you as being flighty and ungrounded. You will seem to be in a constant state of mental flux. This is due to your ability to take in more than one stimulus at a time. Learn to control your environment, rather than letting it control you.

Neptune Sextile Pluto:

Advancement will be forward moving, but slow, if you choose a materialistic approach to life and living. If you grasp, early in life, the spiritual significance of life, you will progress faster.

Neptune Sextile Asc.:

You are likely to experience some form of psychic ability by the time you reach mid-life. Do not be afraid to adapt this gift to good use in daily living. You are insightful and have much to share.

Pluto in Leo and in 8th house:

The sign in which Pluto is placed is a generational influence. The house placement tells how it will affect you. Pluto in Leo alters the perception of love, romance and children. Leadership skills often arise in whatever house Pluto appears. Your interest in stocks, investing, real estate and financial affairs can turn into family blessings if you follow your heart and your intuition. Your spouse is likely to be lucky as well.

Pluto Quincunx Node T.:

You brought back many talents with you in this life and can easily implement these into a very prosperous career and lifestyle. Where you become sidetracked, is when making money becomes more important than anything else.

That's when you stand to lose everything. In mid-life, it is possible you will become a seeker of truth. You will begin to use your prosperity as a means to help yourself, family, friends and loved ones.

Jupiter is Retrograde:

Jupiter represents expansion, the true quality of expression, and authoritative judgment. Jupiter allows you to see beyond what is deemed "real" in our earthly existence. It is a visionary planet that let's the human soul branch out far beyond it's limited scope. This is a planet of hope, faith and inspiration. Jupiter envelopes cosmic law, universal principles and spiritual destiny. It gives flight to the soul and then reconnects it to the body, so that practical applications can be made in the present lifetime. The key to Jupiter's influence over your life as you begin to mature, is that you are better able to apply Jupiter's learned knowledge to your affairs in a way that sets you free and expands your awareness of what is possible for you to attain at any given moment. A retrograde Jupiter tells of a soul who was either held back and fairly limited in his past life, or who held others back, disallowing for their growth and evolvment. In this life, a retrograde Jupiter makes you work for what you want. You still have the qualities of belief, foresight and faith, but nothing will be handed to you on a silver platter. If you were born into riches and prosperity, you will be forced to learn the lessons of value and integrity. If you don't, you could lose everything and have to start over, perhaps more than once. Jupiter's influence is often attached to the word "Karma" and will show us what it is that we must grow beyond, where we must expand our consciousness. Jupiter retrograde teaches us the value of utilizing our talents and abilities to their fullest. We learn to survive, to overcome and to give unselfishly, when called upon to be of service to humanity. We learn to give to ourselves as well.

Uranus is Retrograde:

The planet Uranus is a higher octave planet, and one with the important role of ushering in the new Aquarian Age for this planetary life wave. It represents the higher mind and it's ability to access that which is unseen, all-knowing and ever active through the principles of universal law and order. While Jupiter offers the opportunity for higher education, Uranus is the ingredient which takes that knowledge, assimilates it, shares it with humanity and then formulates higher degrees of knowledge. Uranus as the higher mind, is that part of our thinking nature which aspires, inspires and uplifts.

Spiritually speaking, for the new Aquarian Age that we are now ushering in, Uranus represents the new, higher octave Christ principle, and in this sense, Uranus symbolizes the Aquarian Age teacher in his or her highest degree. Uranus in retrogradation, sometimes misses opportunities that come too soon and unexpectedly in life. This position of Uranus will often, better benefit from these opportunities with maturity or age. You are someone, to whom, life occasionally offers a "second chance". While you are also someone who wishes to reach out and help the betterment of humanity in general, you will find yourself embroiled in more personal, one on one issues that must be resolved before you can experience the luxury of philanthropic endeavors. You are not a typical student where standardized education is concerned. You may even be considered a revolutionary or rebel in some matters. You tend to do better by choosing your own studies and by learning them on your own terms. You can expect unexpected gains, but if you are irresponsible, loss will come as well. You will be rewarded for diligence, real effort and by not giving up.

Neptune is Retrograde:

Neptune is a reflection of the spiritual side of your nature. It tells us about your spiritual development up to this lifetime, and hints at the direction you are likely to go at this life's close. It bespeaks your generational Karma with others born during your time period and helps to show the developmental direction being taken by this planetary evolution cycle. Neptune shows us how you express yourself on a subconscious level through your dreams, intuition and psychic flashes. Neptune can be, like Jupiter, quite inspirational, but the guidance comes from within the depths of your own higher self. With a retrograde Neptune, you are probably more sensitive to your environment, stress and outside pressures than those with a direct Neptune. You more easily "pick up" on the subtle outworking of energy and vibration taking place all around you. With Neptune retrograde, it is possible that in a past life you had to deal with the results of alcoholism, drug addiction or any of the other shadier sides of human existence. Take care in this lifetime, lest there be any residuals. Some people with Neptune retrograde are sensitive to medications, alcohol and smoking in this life. This can actually be, however, a blessing in disguise. In the early part of life, especially, you will also want to avoid negative psychicism. Keep a realistic perspective on your dreams, hopes, wishes and goals. Don't become so spiritual that you are of no earthly good. Seek balance in all areas of your life. If you can be practical in all of your daily affairs, if you can avoid obsessive or possessive behaviors, if you can stay grounded to the reality of existence and if you can utilize your intuitive perceptions, then you will do well by this Neptune placement.

Pluto is Retrograde:

Pluto's role as official caretaker of group and individual Karma, is often expressed on the more subtler levels of human and earthly experience. It takes time for Pluto to make its influence felt, but its influence is always an effort to initiate a needed change or transformation. The key to Pluto's retrogradation is transformation. Once you have accepted the inevitable, you are likely to find that you wish you'd given way to the change much sooner. Pluto vibrates to a higher octave and is considered, by many, to be the higher expression of Mars. Pluto, in days gone by, was sometimes referred to as the "Destroyer". In reality, however, Pluto tears down what is old, outmoded, outdated or worn out, and replaces in its stead, something new, unique, serviceable and better than before. Remember that Karma does not always imply negativity. Rather, it implies that any good you have earned, will also be awarded. With a retrograde Pluto, you can expect that anything held in abeyance in your past life or early childhood in this life, will be released to you in full measure as you enter your mature years. Pluto forces the soul to grow up and to accept responsibility for its actions. Pluto holds the individual and groups of individuals, accountable for their every deed. Pluto admires and reveres the art and act of self-discipline. It demands loyalty and it rewards hard work. Pluto retrograde, will give you the opportunity to right the wrongs of your past, in this life or from other lives, and it allows you to build a firm foundation for both the present and the future. With age and maturity, come attainment, achievement and lasting rewards. Don't take any shortcuts.

Take time for regeneration. Develop inner joy and an excitement about what you will accomplish in this life. Move forward.
